

PRACTICE SOLUTIONS

Building your business has never been easier with our Advised Line of Credit

As a multiple practice owner, we know how important it is to have higher amounts of financing in place for when you've identified your next growth opportunity.

Our advised line of credit is more than just your standard line of credit — it's a customized financing solution designed to meet the needs of your growing business in the time that works best for you. You'll also get all these great advantages¹:

- Tailored line amounts to fit your business needs
- Line advances to acquire, start or expand locations and/or purchase new equipment
- Gain confidence knowing you proactively established financing for your next business opportunity
- Simple process to access funds

Plus you'll have the ability to pay off your balance with a term loan, then reaccess the line for your next growth opportunity.

With more than 20 years of experience in practice financing, our goal is to be your long-term partner. In addition to financing, we offer a full suite of banking solutions.

¹ All programs are subject to credit approval and loan amounts are subject to creditworthiness. Approval of an Advised Line of Credit is not a commitment to allow advances under it, and the use of the Advised Line of Credit and each advance under it are subject to credit approval. Each advance must be repaid by a refinance into an amortizing term loan within 120 days from the date of the advance, which term loan is subject to further credit approval, and the term, amount, interest rate and repayment schedule for the term loan may vary depending on your creditworthiness and on the type, amount and collateral for your term loan. Bank of America may prohibit use of an account to pay off or pay down another Bank of America account. The Advised Line of Credit is subject to annual review, and may be closed or renewed in the sole discretion of Bank of America. Other restrictions may apply.
